

Ebor Vale Riding Club (EVRC)

Code of Conduct: Spectators

All horse events welcome spectators. Your enthusiasm and support encourages all participants. Your actions influence the mood of the riders and the competition.

Ebor Vale Riding Club would you like you to:

- Treat officials (EVRC, other clubs, Area and BRC), and coaches and instructors with respect, even if you disagree with their decision
- Behave responsibly and speak out if something isn't right
- Encourage all riders and applaud their efforts
- Treat competitors, other spectators and event officials with respect and appreciate their level of skill and talent
- Respect and celebrate difference and do not discriminate against anyone else on the grounds of gender, race, sexual orientation or ability
- Only enter the riding area or arena during a lesson or competition if asked to do so by the instructor or organiser, or you are calling a dressage test for a competitor
- When posting any photos on social media please be aware of other members, competitors, volunteers or spectators in the background and check they are happy for you to upload them

EVRC expects all those attending the club's activities to follow the behaviours and requests of this code.

If someone contradicts any of the points above, the club will address the problem straight away and aim to resolve the issue.

Continued issues may result in the club asking you to leave the activity permanently.
